Earn While You Learn: This program is designed to reward learning, foster responsibility and nurture relationships. Curriculum is designed to meet the need of the client where they are in the parenting process. The lessons range from prenatal care, child development, discipline, raising teenagers, budgeting and even Bible studies. This is a short list of the available curriculum. Some of the favorite lessons are Magic 1-2-3 and Surviving Adolescents. We also have curriculum that focuses specifically for teen moms and the issues they encounter during pregnancy and then raising the child. Our goal is to help you reach you goals. Please call for a more detailed list of the lessons available or check out our website. (Joni Bradberry) Men's Coaching and Fatherhood Initiative: This program is designed to help men reach their goals as men, husbands and fathers. The Fatherhood Initiative is a program designed to help men	Advocacy services are not available at this time.	Pregnancy Help Services: Free pregnancy tests for girls and women of all ages. We offer support and assistance for the planned and unplanned pregnancy. All services are free and confidential. (Natalie Jerlecki) Mother's Club: All moms are welcome. Meet friends, grow spiritually, and learn parenting and life skills, crafts, sewing, and cooking classes. (All services are free and childcare is provided for newborn through Kindergarten – Thursday mornings, during the school year at Belmont Mennonite Church – Natalie Jerlecki) Grandparent Support: When a teenager son or daughter announces they are expecting, it can mean a major change for the whole family. Mom and dad are now grandparents. What does it look like to raise a teenager who is now a mom or dad themselves? Grandparent support offers guidance and support to those faced with a teenage pregnancy by someone who has experienced it.. (Tonya Harwood)

become the father they desire to be. Classes are set up in 12 week sessions and offered several times a year. (David Howe)

Sexual Integrity Education:
Sexual Integrity teaches it is never too late to start making better decisions about your sexual health. We have a staff person who meets one on one with individuals who need support and encouragement and the facts about sexuality.

She also speaks at churches, youth groups, schools and other organizations. Her goal is to help individuals make good choices and find healing for past decisions.
